Cody offers a fun and informative submersion into Old West and the history of our great country as well as opportunities for outdoor recreation in beautiful surroundings. There are many museums in Cody, listed are some you won't want to miss.

1. The Buffalo Bill Center of the West
2. Museum of the Plains Indians
3. Cody Firearms Museum
4. Cody Dug-up Guns Museum
5. Draper Natural History Museum
6. Heart Mountain WWII Japanese American Confinement Site
7. Cody Heritage Museum

Old Trail Town is a deep dive into history where frontier buildings and artifacts were brought to Cody to give visitors the feel of the Old West. After a stroll in this western environment, cap off your evening at the nightly rodeo and see cowboys compete under the starry skies.

The Cody Trolley tour is a great way to get an overview of all Cody has to offer. It is a 60-minute tour of the town and you can purchase a combination ticket ($41.00*) for the trolley and the Buffalo Bill Center of the West.

Each night a gunfight is staged at the Irma Hotel and Restaurant, built by Buffalo Bill and named for his daughter. Depending on the night, local entertainment may include a hoedown or country crooner.

And of course, there is golf, if you want to bring your clubs along. Two recommended courses are the Olive Glenn Golf and Country Club (307-587-5551) and the Powell Golf Club, (307-754-7259).
